

Health Advocate Frequently Asked Questions

Who is Health Advocate?

Health Advocate is the nation's leading healthcare advocacy and assistance company. Our experts make healthcare easier, by helping you and your eligible family members navigate the healthcare system, resolve healthcare and insurance issues, and get to the right care at the right time.

Is Health Advocate the same as insurance?

No. Health Advocate is not an insurance company, and does not replace healthcare coverage, provide medical care or recommend treatment. We help simplify the healthcare experience to save you time, money and worry.

How does the Health Advocacy service work?

- Whenever you or an eligible family member has a healthcare-related issue or concern, you simply call our toll-free number to connect with an experienced Personal Health Advocate.
- The Personal Health Advocate will gather information about the issue and work to resolve it as quickly as possible.
- Before we can get to work, you will be asked to sign the Health Advocate Authorization Form. This form gives Health Advocate permission to gain access to medical information and interact with providers and insurance companies on your behalf.
- You will work with the same Personal Health Advocate until all issues are completely resolved.

Who is eligible to use the service?

You, your spouse, dependent children, parents and parents-in-law can all access Health Advocate's services as often as you/they like.

Does it cost anything to use Health Advocate?

No. Health Advocate's services are provided to employees and their eligible family members at no cost.

What kind of issues can Health Advocate help with?

Our Personal Health Advocates can help with a wide range of clinical and administrative issues.
